1. A communique from the Ministry of Information and the Ministry of Education, Prague, to Jan Bartos of Calcutta stated that Mulk Raj Anand will probably come to Prague in December 1949 to write a new book. His most recent book, Untouchable, has just been printed in Prague in the Czech language. The translation was made by Steinova (fnu), while the vocabulary of scientific words was prepared by Dr. Forisk (fnu).
2. The communique also states that in the first part of 1950, Uday Shankar, the noted Indian dancer, his wife, and a troupe of 12 dancers will come to Prague.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
